COVID-19 HEALTH ALERT FOR TRAVELERS

Required 14-Day Self-Quarantine:

All people arriving in Alaska, are required to self-quarantine for 14 days and monitor for illness.

Health Mandate 10.1 – International and Interstate Travel – Order for Self-Quarantine

Upon arrival in any community in Alaska from another state or nation, you must:

1. Proceed directly from the airport to your designated quarantine location, which is the location identified and affirmed by you on the mandatory State of Alaska Travel Declaration Form.
2. Remain in your designated quarantine location for a period of 14 days, or the duration of your stay in Alaska, whichever is shorter.

The failure to follow this order is punishable by a fine of up to $25,000, or imprisonment of not more than one year, or both pursuant to Alaska Statute 12.55.035 and Alaska Statute 12.55.135

Health Mandate 012 – Intrastate Travel – Limiting travel between communities to critical infrastructure or critical personal needs

Personal travel is prohibited except as necessary to meet critical personal needs or work in critical infrastructure jobs.

Critical personal needs include buying, selling, or delivering groceries and home goods; obtaining fuel for vehicles or residential needs; transporting family members for out-of-home care, essential health needs, or for purposes of child custody exchanges; receiving essential health care; providing essential health care to a family member; obtaining other important goods; and engaging in subsistence activities.

Travelers are reminded to follow social distancing measures, including, to the extent reasonably feasible, keeping six feet away from others, avoiding crowded places, and limiting public gatherings to less than ten people.

No one traveling to or from any community for critical reasons or critical personal travel may be subject to any automatic quarantine or isolation on arrival except as allowed under Alaska Statutes or Health Mandates.

Air carriers and other travel-related businesses have no duty to verify that intrastate travelers meet the criteria for permissible travel under this health mandate. Air carriers shall inquire if travelers are permitted to travel under this mandate and shall rely upon a traveler's assurance that they are eligible to travel.

All in-state travel between communities is prohibited

Unless travel is to support critical infrastructure, or for critical personal needs.
